APPLICATION OF

CPV WARREN, LLC

CASE NO. PUE-2002-00075

For a certificate of public convenience and necessity for electric generation facilities in Warren County, Virginia

HEARING EXAMINER'S RULING

May 20, 2002

On February 4, 2002, CPV Warren, LLC ("CPV" or "the Company") filed an application with the Commission for approval, pursuant to § 56-580 D of the Code of Virginia and the revised provisions of 20 VAC 5-302-10 and -20 of the Virginia Administrative Code, to construct, own, and operate a 520 MW combined cycle electric generating facility in Warren County, Virginia. The Commission issued an Order for Notice and Hearing on March 18, 2002, which, among other things, established a hearing date and procedural schedule, and directed the Company to provide public notice of its application.

On May 17, 2002, the Company, by its counsel Cassandra Sturkie, moved for the admission pro hac vice of James R. Barrett and George D. Cannon, Jr., pursuant to Va. Code § 54.1-3900. Ms. Sturkie states that Mr. Barrett, a partner of Latham & Watkins, has been licensed to practice law in the State of California since 1991 and in the District of Columbia since 1994. Mr. Barrett has previously appeared pro hac vice before the Commission. Ms. Sturkie states that Mr. Cannon, an associate at Latham & Watkins, has been licensed to practice law in the State of New York since 1995 and in the District of Columbia since 1996. Mr. Cannon also has previously appeared pro hac vice before the Commission.

I am of the opinion, and find, the motion should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS DIRECTED that James R. Barrett and George D. Cannon, Jr. are hereby admitted pro hac vice to represent CPV in the captioned proceeding.
